

□ HISTORY OF LITHIUM-ION BATTERY-EQUIPPED VEHICLES

Nissan started development of Li-Ion batteries in 1992, and has since used the technology on many electric vehicles (EVs), hybrid electric vehicles (HEVs) and fuel cell vehicles (FCVs). On-going development aims for even better performance and a greater range prior to series production in 2010.

